

Danish Week at Vihula Manor November 6.-15.

November will once again start off with the introduction of a Nordic country. This year the focus will be on Danish cuisine and culture. The head chef position at Vihula Manor will be taken over by the chef de cuisine and co-owner of the well-known Restaurant Borgen, Jesper Brinkløv and guests will be able to visit the Danish artist Søren Kent's exhibition in the Vihula Manor Conference Centre.

- 17.10-08.12 Art exhibition of Danish painter and ceramicist Søren Kent in Vihula Manor Conference Centre.
- 06.11-15.11 New Danish Cuisine Week, guests will be introduced to this cuisine by Jesper Brinkløv who will be taking over the kitchen at Restaurant La Boheme.
- 07.11-15.11 The Danish House organized in co-operation with the Danish-Estonian Chamber of Commerce.
- 06.11-08.11 Visit of the delegation from Vordingborg municipality.
- 06.11 at 7 PM Gala Evening. Reception and gala dinner at Restaurant La Boheme, opening of the Danish Week by the Danish Ambassador to Estonia Søren Kelstrup.
- 07.11 at 2 PM. Opening of the Danish House in the Palm House.
- 07.11 at 3 PM. Seminar on “The Medieval links and tourism between Estonia and Denmark”.
- 07.11 at 4 PM. Tea house, flower arrangement workshop with Brigitte Brinkløv, Jesper Brinkløv's wife. The materials used in the workshop will be those found nearby in Lahemaa and gathered fresh from the nature
- 07.11 at 6.30 PM. St. Martin's Day dinner at the La Boheme restaurant. Vihula Manor's chef de cuisine, Lauri Tomingas has prepared a special 3-course menu under the instruction of Jesper Brinkløv for this occasion.
- 08.11, 14.11 and 15.11. The Danish House in the Palm House is open between 2 PM and 6 PM. An introductory exhibition of Danish companies in Estonia and their commercial activities.
- 15.11 at 3 PM. Danish Week closing concert. Danish musicians Michael Sunding and Mads Vinding will be offering an enjoyable hour of jazz music in Vihula Manor's restaurant La Boheme.

Michael Sunding ja Mads Vinding,
Danish musicians

Jesper Brinkløv, chef de cuisine and co-owner of Restaurant Borgen

Søren Kent, Danish painter and ceramicist

NOVEMBER EVENTS IN VIHULA MANOR

November 21 at 9 PM

Make your weekend getaway at the Manor exciting with a wine degustation evening! We invite you to participate in a wine degustation evening, surrounded by the atmosphere of the Manor and great company. The evening will be hosted by and the wines introduced by Riho Teder (Altia Estonia).

November 21 at 7 PM

Dancing in water. Dance is as old as mankind and helps to relieve stress and tension. We offer the chance to dance various world dances, the wonderful waltz and the intense tango in water.

WONDROUSLY BEAUTIFUL MUSIC IN VIHULA MANOR

November 7 at 5 PM

The songs of Jaak Joala - Koit Toome & Jorma Puusaag

November 14 at 5 PM

Alen Veziko and Pärt Tarvas – “Still on the road”

November 20 at 5 PM

Helin-Mari Arder “Only this is love”

December 13 at 7 PM

Märt Avandi and Kõrsikud – “Life, things”

December 17 at 7 PM

Ivo Linna, Nele-Liis Vaiksoo and Antti Kammiste –
”I want to be the night behind your window”

December 20 at 6 PM

Rein Rannap, Kristjan Kannukene and C-JAM –
“From the heavens above”

December 27 at 7 PM

Tanja Mihhailove and Mikk Saar – “Our Christmas”

A brilliant new year in the manor

The New Year's Eve party will be made vibrant by Sofia Rubina's concert, amazing service and fireworks at midnight.

We will be making wishes with you beneath the light of the fireworks in the hopes that the New Year will be good! Now imagine the trees blanketed by snow and the last sweet scents of the year and you will understand why visiting this place in winter is unavoidable.

The New Year's Eve party includes:

- A formal dinner
- Sofia Rubina's live concert
- A glass of bubbly at midnight

Price: 79 EUR/person

With accommodation for two: 279 EUR/1 night

341 EUR/2 nights

Autumnal detox with the 2 hour “ESPA Detox Ritual”

The combination of a body wrap and massage will speed up the process of ridding the body of toxins and will improve blood circulation. Includes: dry body brushing – a body scrub – a detoxing seaweed wrap – a detoxing massage – a head massage

Price: 85 EUR (120 minutes)

In October and November you will also receive a gift with this treatment!

