La Boheme Restaurant surprises with the fresh spring menu!

Restaurant La Boheme welcomes spring with fresh new menu. In creating the new menu, chef Lauri Tomingas was inspired from spring nature, recipes of the manor hostess/lady and local ingredients. Food lovers are invited to taste Liivima beef tartare with garlic speck and spicy sauce, rabbit liver brûlée with fig and sage, beef in whiskey with asparagus and crispy onion and sorbet selection. There are also delicacies for little gourmands. The wine list of the restaurant is also renewed with a wide range of best wines of Europe, which fits even the most demanding wine gourmets.

ESPA – NATURALLY EFFECTIVE

In Vihula Manor you can pamper yourself with unique treatments using the luxury brand ESPA!

We go to the ends of the earth (literally) to source the highest quality and most active natural ingredients to deliver both instant results and long term benefits. Our carefully selected ingredients are sustainably sourced, carefully harvested and meticulously prepared for optimal effectiveness. We add nothing artificial to our formulations – just pure, natural extracts.

Every encounter with ESPA brings with it a profound sense of pleasure and discovery. Our treatments are tailored to your needs, whether it is total relaxation, escapism or the pursuit of wellbeing. ESPA treatments have an essence of their own and with rituals inspired by traditional cultures and the latest advances in science our highly skilled therapists can focus on stress-relief, optimizing health and achieving evident results.

VODKA MUSEUM PROGRAM

Vihula Manor's Vodka Distillery is located in 3-story ancient house made of stones, which dates back to 1830. One can find interesting materials about the beginning of vodka and spirit making in Estonia and in Vihula Manor.

During the Vodka Museum program, you will be introduced to the Museum itself, the history of spirit and vodka making in Vihula Manor and stories about the Manor's life during those days will be told. We will degustate a "legend drink" and "Vodka of Germans".

Duration: about 30 minutes

Price: 12 EUR/per person

Manor hostess's sweet berry schnapps preparation

In addition to a tour of the manor or a wine tasting program, we offer the opportunity to prepare Vihula Madam or Sir old mansion by reptepti please bring your drink.

Duration: about 15 minutes

Price: 10 EUR per person

Babies are born at Vihula Manor Eco-Farm

All the kids – both the small ones and the adult ones – are interested in our Eco-Farm, located in the 19th century Horse Stable. You will love to watch the farm animals such as horses, cows, sheep, rabbits and chickens.

This year we are expecting many tiny bunnies and adorable little lambs to born in our Eco-Farm.
